1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(are) as being clearly anticipated by Walsh et al. (U. S. Pat. No. 6,497,121).

Re claim 1, Walsh is cited disclosing a washing machine comprising: a casing provided with an opening (see fig. 6 and 7) for putting laundry into the washing machine there through; a tub supportably installed in the casing; a drum rotatably located in the tub; driving means for rotating the drum; and a door (90) installed at the casing for opening and closing the opening of the casing, and provided with air suction ports (96, 98) for sucking external air into the drum there through.

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claims 3 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Walsh et al. in view of Japan'405 (Japan 5-115405).

Claims 3 and 10 define over Walsh only in the recitation of the means for opening the ports. Japan'405 is cited disclosing opening means. It therefore would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to modify the device of Walsh, to include means for opening the ports, for the purpose of controlling the airflow.

Art Unit: 1746

5. Claims 4-9 and 11-14 stand objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. Claims 15-20 are allowed.

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. In Japan'196, Milby et al. and D'Angelo, note the openings
